A TEA PARTY TO CELEBRATE 75 YEARS
25 SEPTEMBER 2014
2.30pm-5.00pm

Ysgol Gymraeg will be celebrating 75 years of welsh education by hosting a tea party on Thursday afternoon, 25 September. The doors will open at 2.30pm and we welcome parents, past-parents, past-pupils and the community to visit the school.

During the afternoon we will enjoy a brief talk by Mr David Meredith, a performance by Georgia Ruth and of course the current pupils will entertain us with a variety of songs. As well as all of this, the Celebratory Book will be launched and you will be able to purchase a copy for £4.95. Prints of the book cover will be available to purchase at a later date from Siop Inc and Siop y Pethe for £60 and we'll be taking orders for these during the afternoon.

*The children are welcome to dress in period costume (1939) if they wish or they may wear the modern school uniform. We'd be grateful if parents of years 4, 5 and 6 could contribute cupcakes and bring them to school that morning please.

We look forward to celebrating with you during the afternoon.
